YIML WOMEN'S LEAGUE

A MESSAGE FROM MRS. JANET EISENBERG,
ON BEHALF OF THE YIML WOMEN'S LEAGUE

Dear Young Israel members,

We are delighted to be running our annual Murray-the-Sockman sale once again. Murray sells camp supplies, clothes, socks and all sorts of other goodies for adults and children. We all appreciate his goods and prices and he has been very generous to our shul!

We need volunteers over Memorial Day weekend to pull this off again—so please call or e-mail me to arrange your shift.

Murray will be unloading his wares at Torah Academy on Sunday, May 24 around 9:00am. Pack up will be Monday, May 25, starting at 2:00pm. Sale hours are Sunday: 12:00-5:00pm and Monday: 10:00am-2:00pm.

Please volunteer and shop accordingly to make this a successful project for our shul.

ONGOING EVENTS

Chevra Mishnayos:

The Chevra Mishnayos is now learning Seder Nezikin.

See the shul bulletin board to sign up.

Women's Tehillim Group:

The Tehillim Group meets Mondays at 10:45am at 8 Concord Circle.

Women's Chovos haLevovos Group:

The Chovos haLevovos Group meets Tuesdays at 9:30am at 8 Concord Circle.

12:20 AM—Rabbi Steinberg

"When Rabbis Disagree: A Halachic Analysis of One of the Greatest Rabbinic/Communal Disputes in Jewish History"

It was a dispute that literally split German Jewry. It had two of the greatest Rabbinic leaders exchanging public, heated letters. Come learn what Halacha has to say about the extent of a Rabbi's authority versus that of a dissenting colleague, and how this issue played an essential role in the machlokes over "secession" between Rav Samson Raphael Hirsch and Rav Yitzchak Dov Bamberger.

1:30 AM—Rabbi Weinberger

"The Famous Phylactery Fissure: The Machlokes Rashi-Rabbeinu Tam Regarding Tefillin"

It's a mitzva we do every single day, and yet two of the greatest Halachists -- a grandfather and a grandson -- disagree fundamentally as to how the mitzva article should be made. Why do some Jews, in fact, wear two separate pair of Tefillin? Is it possible that we've never fulfilled this mitzva properly? Come learn the sources regarding this historic machlokes.

All Night Learning Program

This Year's Theme:

An Evening of Controversy

All topics presented are matters that have generated heated debate in the Jewish world and/or society at large. You won't want to miss these shiurim!

Refreshments sponsored by Michaela and Dan Perez in commemoration of the Yahrzeit of Michaela's father, Moshe Arye ben Zev, a"h.

2:40 AM—Dr. Eisenberg

"Stem Cell Research"

Proponents foresee it bringing a day when many of the diseases that plague us will be obsolete. Opponents see nothing less than the total devaluation of human life. It's an issue in the newspapers every other day. Your workmate or neighbor asks you what your Torah has to say on this important matter. What do you answer?

3:50 AM—Dr. Weintraub

"The Big Bris Brouhaha: Metzitzah B'Peh Controversy"

It generated vehement debate in the nineteenth century and has done so again as recently as three years ago, with extensive media coverage. It has the Orthodox community split, and has even gotten a lot of Government attention. Is this method of completing a bris milah dangerous and unnecessary, or is it harmless and an essential part of the Sinitic tradition? Come study the words of the Poskim.

5:00 AM SHACHARIS

Special – Two-Part Shiur Series

The Laws of Shaimos: What to do with Old and Worn Sacred Texts

Our time has witnessed an unprecedented abundance of books, journals, bulletins, and other forms of Torah literature. While the benefits of these texts are immeasurable, their proliferation also makes the question more pressing as to what to do when they are worn or otherwise no longer usable. Can they simply be discarded? Are there different levels of "shaimos"? We will study interesting insights from the great Poskim and thereby gain practical Halachic guidance, as well as important Hashkofos about the sanctity of Torah and its study.
