An Important Message from the Kiddush Committee

The Kiddush Committee needs more volunteers for setting up Kiddush on Shabbos mornings. The more volunteers there are, the less often each member has to do the Kiddush. Having lost a few members, the committee right now is down to 4 women where the ideal would be a minimum of 6 to 8 women—resulting in a frequency of less than once-per-month. Please consider volunteering to help out with this job.

Upcoming events

Mikveh Renovations Completed Renovations at the Mikveh at Torah Academy have been completed and the Mikveh will reopen this Sunday evening, May 4th. Please call the Mikveh phone line (610-642-8679) for times and scheduling.

There will be an "Open Mikveh" this Motzei Shabbos, May 3, from 9:15-10:15pm for women to view the renovations. Thank you to the Mikveh's President, Marc Henzel, and to Galitte Den, Monica Rasch and Shari Saiman, for overseeing the renovation project.

Thank you to Lower Merion Synagogue and to all of the interim Mikveh attendants for their service during this process. The LMS Mikveh will return to its regular Friday night/Yom Tov schedule beginning on Sunday, May 4.

Chevra Mishnayos

The Chevra Mishnayos is learning Seder Nezikin.
